The 15th National Congress of FENPROF Held in Lisbon Teacher Shortage & Long Hours of Work Are Worldwide Problems

The slide reading “VALORISATION, NOW! For the teaching profession. For Public Education.” and the carnations on the podium struck us very vividly, upon arriving at the conference venue.

Report on Education in Portugal and Efforts of FENPROF

On May 16 and 17, ZENKYO attended in the 15th National Congress of Federação Nacional dos Professores (FENPROF) held in Lisbon. Secretary General Yuko Kanai and International Affairs Staff Chihiro Okamoto in attendance. We would like to report on the congress, the content of the international seminar held prior to the congress, and the bilateral exchanges between FENPROF and Syndicat National des Enseignements de Second degré (SNES-FSU), which will be covered over several issues in the NEWSLETTER.
